Pride and Prejudice... But Funny

Friday 5 June @ 7:30PM

Price from £14 - £19

What do you get if you cross Jane Austen's most famous novel with a bunch of buffoons? Pride and Prejudice... but funny! A ridiculous romp through all the Bennets, Bingleys, bachelors and balls (not that kind), and not forgetting the De Bourghs and Darcys. Featuring at least one soaking wet shirt and some excellent boiled potatoes, this hilarious retelling of Austen's most loved story is not to be missed!

MUSIC

Triaura Norwich Jazz Quintet

Saturday 6 June @ 7:30PM

Price from £14.50 - £20

Triaura were formed in 2020 by Norwich Jazz guitarist Jonathan after he graduated from the Elder Conservatorium of music in Adelaide. Since then they have enjoyed a twice monthly residency in Norwich for two years. They will be performing a mix of familiar American Jazz standards with a few bebop, Latin and original compositions for contrast.

FILM

Northern Soul: Still Burning

Thursday 11 June @ 7:30PM

Price from £6 - £9

Leap onto the dancefloor and discover the enduring legacy of the cultural phenomenon that is Northern Soul. Ignited in the working class communities of the North and the Midlands in the late 60s and 70s, this underground scene brought together youth culture and rare, overlooked uptempo American soul music in a rush of exhilaration and high-energy dancing.

Sand Castles

A Summer Comedy by Bob Larbey

Sand Castles

Wednesday 24 - Saturday 27 June

We all like to be beside the seaside, and as everybody knows, an Englishman's home is his sandcastle. Stan and Bernice Billett and William and Margaret Patterson have been taking their holidays in the same resort for years. They don't exactly rule the waves but they have turned the area around their beach huts into a cosy little fiefdom. And then along comes garrulous Doug and his noisy nieces who don't give a hoot about beach hut protocol - they just want to have fun in the sun; plus a motley collection of beachgoers who are resentful of the beach hut owners 'up the posh bit'.

Bring all the family so your kids can witness some amazing music.

SCREENING

Exhibition on Screen: Frida Kahlo

Thursday 9 July @ 2:30PM

Price from £11 - £14

Who was Frida Kahlo? Everyone knows her face but who was the woman behind the bright colours, the big brows and the floral crowns? Take a journey through the life of a true icon, discover her art, and uncover the true story of her rebellious, passionate and turbulent life. Making use of the latest technology to deliver previously unimaginable quality, we take an in-depth look at key works throughout her career.

Jeeves & Wooster in Perfect Nonsense

Wednesday 22 - Saturday 25 July

Expect a vibrant and fast-paced adaptation of one of P. G. Wodehouse's much-loved classics. Three performers bring twelve characters to life in a sharply crafted comedy of misunderstandings, mishaps, and impeccable timing. Will Bertie Wooster manage to fulfill Aunt Dahlia's latest impossible assignment? Will Sir Watkyn Bassett and Roderick Spode gain the upper hand? And can Jeeves, as ever, restore order before disaster strikes? Along the way, expect the romantic entanglements of Gussie Fink-Nottle and Madeline Bassett, not to mention a few newts illuminated by moonlight.

What is Summer Rep?

Modern repertory theatre began in the early 1900s thanks to Anne Horniman and Sir Barry Jackson. Horniman, a wealthy tea heiress, supported theatres like Dublin’s Abbey Theatre and Manchester’s Gaiety—England’s first rep theatre. Jackson founded Birmingham Rep in 1913 and expanded to multiple cities, even reaching Canada.

Though WWII and television challenged the rep movement, it found new life through seaside seasons and civic playhouses.

The supercharged stage season is a theatre tradition – known as repertory or “rep” – and here in Sheringham, we are one of only a handful of venues still doing it, as the art form becomes an endangered species.

This year, we are returning to our roots of traditional rep with a seven-strong professional cast. They will be rehearsing one play during the day, performing another in the evening, gearing up for another in the wings, then stepping back for “encores” as each show returns after a short break.

Though it is demanding on the cast and creative backstage teams, it is renowned as the best training ground for actors as they throw themselves into multiple shows and characters in a pressure cooker of sorts.

LEND ME A TENOR

by Ken Ludwig

Lend Me a Tenor

Wednesday 29 July - Saturday 29 August

Ken Ludwig's beloved screwball farce that hits all the high notes of classic comedy. Set in September 1934, the action unfolds backstage at the Cleveland Grand Opera Company on the most important night of its season. World-famous tenor Tito Merelli — "Il Stupendo" himself — is scheduled to star in Pagliacci, and General Manager Henry Saunders is determined that nothing goes wrong.

Of course, everything does. What follows is a whirlwind of slamming doors, frantic disguises, romantic entanglements, and near-misses. Add an ambitious diva, a flirtatious opera guild chairwoman, a giddy girlfriend, and a meddling bellhop, and the result is pure theatrical pandemonium.

Eddie is holding a memorial for his brother. Paige closes the road to it in a climate protest. Insults are traded then they expect never to see each other again. But they do. Again and again. Until there's no option but to take action together. Fire Fire is about taking big risks and discovering a deeper purpose in common.

THEATRE

Meat

Friday 6 November @ 7:30PM

Price from £15 - £18

Meat delves into the close relationship of local Diss tailor Robert Carleton and his young apprentice John Lincoln. When the rival tailors daughter comes between them, the quiet Norfolk town becomes the centre of scandal, and death. Commissioned by Magic Floor Productions and based on a true story, Meat is a poignant thriller by local playwright James McDermott, exploring prejudice and forbidden love.

COMEDY

Anyone for Tennis?

Saturday 7 November @ 7:30PM

Price from £13.50 - £18

A Wimbledon line judge for 20 years, comedian Pauline Eyre is ready to spill the Pimms on tennis gossip from the fragrant royal box to the musty locker room - and why line judges are OUT! Expect smashing stories, ace anecdotes and a 40-love letter to the game. And there's nobody to say 'quiet please'. She cannot be serious... can she?

FILM Q&A

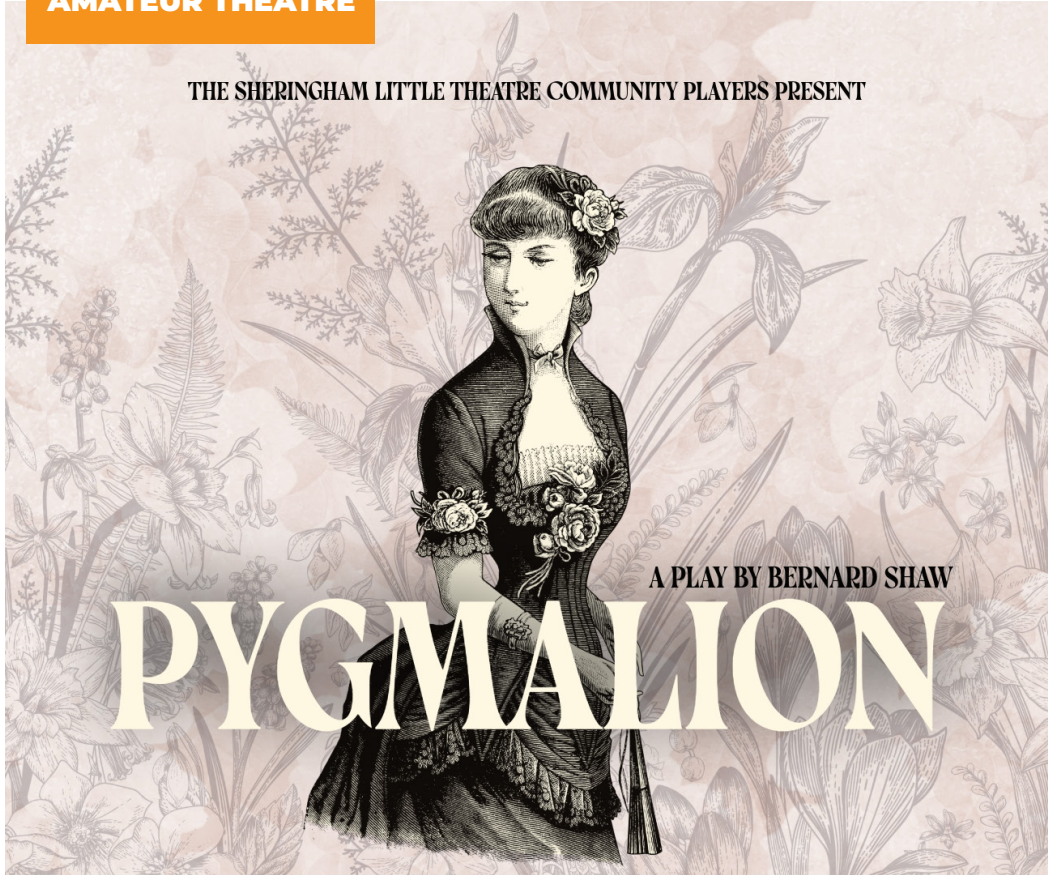

Norfolk Folklore: The Fog with Q&A

Thursday 19 November @ 7:30PM

Price from £6 - £9

The Norfolk Folklore Society invites you to step into the mist for a night of maritime menace, coastal curses and creeping dread as they present The Fog in collaboration with Reel Connections. John Carpenter's 1980 masterpiece is a ghost story drenched in regret, sea air, and the unshakeable knowledge that some places remember more than they forgive.

THE SHERINGHAM LITTLE THEATRE COMMUNITY PLAYERS PRESENT

Pygmalion

Wednesday 11 - Saturday 14 November

Pygmalion is a sharp witted social commentary wrapped in comedic play.. it explores themes of class identity and the superficiality of high society. The story begins in Covent Garden where professor Henry Higgins an expert in phonetics makes a wager with his colleague Colonel Pickering that he can take Elizabeth Doolittle a poor flower girl with a cockney accent and pass her off as a duchess by simply teaching her to 'talk proper'.

COMEDY

Solve-Along-A-Murder-She-Wrote

Friday 20 November @ 7:30PM

Price from £14.50 - £20

Cult hit event Solve-Along-A-Murder-She-Wrote comes to town, with an interactive screening of a classic Murder, She Wrote episode. Jessica Fletcher heads to London but soon gets caught up in a murder mystery only she (or you!) can solve! This is a unique and hilarious night featuring games, prizes and audience participation, with special permission from NBC Universal Television.

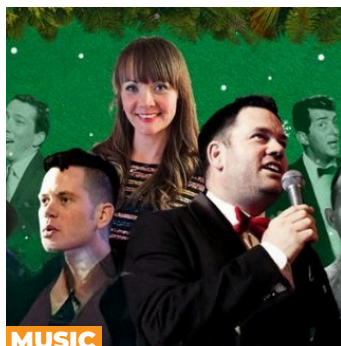

MUSIC

Máire Ní Chathasaigh and Chris Newman

Saturday 21 November @ 7:30PM

Price from £12 - £16.50

The pioneering partnership of “one of the UK’s finest and most influential acoustic guitarists” (fROOTS) with “the doyenne of Irish harpers” (SCOTLAND ON SUNDAY) has presented its unique musical vision in twenty-two countries on five continents to venues ranging from the tiniest of village halls to palaces in Kyoto, London’s Barbican and the Philharmonie in Cologne.

MUSIC

Christmas Crooners

Friday 11 December @ 7:30PM

Price from £14.50 - £20

This much-loved festive show is a celebration of music from the Great American Christmas Songbook,. Bursting with laughter and seasonal sparkle, the show features hit after hit of festive songs paying tribute to the legendary voices of the swing and big band era.

SCREENING

André Rieu’s Christmas Concert: Let It Snow

Friday 18 December @ 7:30PM

Price from £11 - £14

André Rieu and his Johann Strauss Orchestra return with a brand-new Christmas concert, bringing a premium festive event to cinemas. Featuring the extraordinary voice of Emma Kok, renowned tenors and special guests, this production is designed to delight audiences this festive season!

A Christmas Carol

Wednesday 25 - Saturday 28 November

Following a sell-out show in 2025, we're delighted to bring A Christmas Carol back this festive season. Excerpts from Dickens' seasonal fable will be interspersed with joyful carols. Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol has captivated us for over 180 years, with its cautionary tale of the perils of greed and the rewards of generosity and love. Scenes from this much-loved story will be performed by a community cast and integrated with uplifting carols, that we encourage you to singalong with.

Your Local Theatre.
Your Lucky Ticket.

In collaboration with Sheringham Little Theatre, SLT Audio Theatre is an innovative digital platform bringing high-quality audio plays to audiences free of charge.

Producing new work by emerging writers and actors can often be financially challenging but audio drama provides a flexible and accessible alternative for creatives.

Each month, a new play is released via a DLF printed flyer featuring a QR code that can be easily scanned on a smartphone for instant listening and yes, it is free!

Building on the success of last year's writing competition, the first productions are set to begin production this summer.

We are now seeking new work for production in 2027. If you are a local writer or actor interested in getting involved, please contact simon@snackbytes.com.

SLT Productions Across the County

We're delighted to share a vibrant season of theatre in some of Norfolk's most historic and atmospheric venues. To book your tickets, simply visit the website of your chosen location - or scan the QR codes below:

Bylaugh Hall

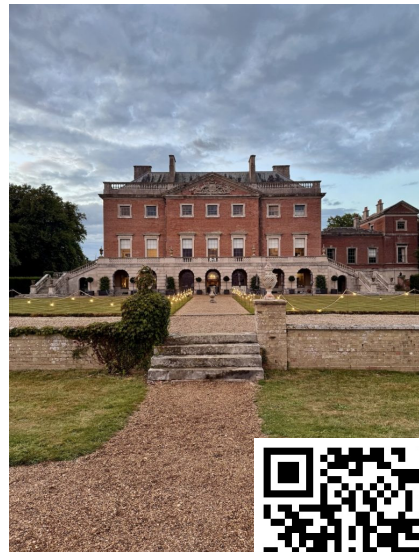

Sheringham Little Theatre returns to Bylaugh Hall on 26 July with a professional outdoor performance of Jeeves and Wooster in Perfect Nonsense, presented by arrangement with The Agency (London) Ltd.

The show takes place on the south terrace, with retail and food stalls, live music and a public bar. Gates open at 12pm, and the performance begins at 2pm.

Wolterton Hall

Sheringham Little Theatre brings three distinctive productions to Wolterton Hall this summer. The Turn of the Screw (8-10 July) offers an immersive journey through the estate's lake, tower and sweeping grounds, with only 60 tickets per performance and a special dinner-and-show evening on 10 July featuring a two-course meal by Alex Clare of Norfolk's Edge. Lend Me a Tenor (7 August), performed under canvas on the Southern Lawns, promises fast-paced comedy, with the option to enjoy an alfresco cream tea by Keith Evans of Hidden Kitchen. Night Must Fall (22 August) unfolds in the elegant Saloon overlooking the lawns and lake, a gripping drama complemented by the chance to add an alfresco cream tea to your visit. Join us for unforgettable theatre in one of Norfolk's most remarkable settings.

OPENING HOURS

Our Box Office is open Monday–Saturday, 10am–3pm.
The theatre opens one hour before each performance.
